3. [REDACTED] Senator Thomas McIntyre's (D., N.H.) office called on behalf of a constituent who wanted to know the names, functions, and membership of the two "subcommittees to the Intelligence Board of the CIA." Eventually it was established that the query concerned USIB standing committees and in a conversation with Major Alfred Melonnie, Headquarters Detachment, State Armory, Concord, N.H., general unclassified information seemed to fully refresh Major Melonnie's memory on material which he wished to deliver in a lecture tomorrow for [REDACTED] and others.

4. [REDACTED] advised that the Department of State had requested [REDACTED] on the 15 April 1967 Vietnam Week demonstrations for forwarding to Congressman Sam Steiger (R., Ariz.). It was reported to [REDACTED] that Secretary Rusk had made mention of the availability of such material in remarks before a group of Congressmen.

5. [REDACTED] Representative Glenard Lipscomb called inquiring if next Wednesday morning would be suitable for the SOS Club to visit for breakfast. After checking with the Director, I advised Representative Conable that this was a good time as Mr. Lipscomb had requested I call Conable. Lipscomb said he did have some suggestions on topics for discussion and I will contact him later.

6. [REDACTED] Joe Ray, in the Bureau of the Budget, called asking for additional assistance on the Fulbright amendment to the USIA act. I advised that the language as we had seen it plus the intent of the author would certainly be a limitation on CIA statutory authorities although technically there might be a question.
